DIARY

1903

Diary

Bidwell, Anne Ellicott Kenney, 1839-1918.

Diaries, 1888-1911. 17 volumes.

Vol. 9. 1903.

Entries include: weather, church, and home affairs; her Indian Mission and W.C.T.U. affairs; journey to Washington, D. C., via Colorado and return to Chico in 1903; journey abroad in 1910. There are no diaries for the years 1892, 1895-1898, 1901. Volume 6 with cover date of 1892 has entries by General Bidwell on January 6-7, and July 17; then follow entries by Mrs. Bidwell for various years, 1895, 1898-1900 and accounts from 1893-1900. There are many blank pages in these diaries.

The French Club (Cercele des Precieuses Ridicules) met last Wednesday evening at the studio of Mr. A. G. Heaton. For this occasion a special Moliere programme had been prepared, including a poetic sketch, "Le reve de Moliere," by Maurice Millot, presented for the first time at the Theatre Francais on January 15 last, the anniversary of the poet's birth. Mr. P. R. Dumaine as Moliere, Miss Camille Becker as La Forest, his housekeeper, and Mrs. Lily Morrison Carr as the poet's vision of the muse of comedy, were enthusiastically applauded by the appreciative audience. Scenes from Moliere's "Le Misanthrope" and "Les Precieuses Ridicules" were interpreted by Mme. Marie Paret Mercier, Miss Rosa Sewell, Miss Marie

Ice on R.R. especially on Switches, delayed trains

Places: Bryn Mawr Pa. Left Washington 9 A.M. Arrived B.M. about 2 P.M. Belated train due to frozen switches & snow on track.

Mrs Wilbur met me at Station in Sleigh We drove under long arches of ice – the trees being completely coated with ice, like prisms reflecting the suns rays. As far as one could see, snow and ice covered trees. A wonderful sight in the bright sun light and at night electric lights & stars adding to the sparkle. Mrs Wilbur's lovely home on crest of a hill, gave such a view. Interior had fine foliage plants or cut rare flowers in every room. Mrs Wilbur's daughter & little granddaughter most cordial also.

Indian Meeting at 3 30 P.M. and a very heavenly affair – so many godly & charming women present – many of the Society of Friends! Reports of Com. were followed by my talk, then Chocolate & cake & crackers served. Letters read from Maggie, Lily & Luther, and much admired in all respects. Meeting at home of Mrs Alsop.

"Weather Coldest of season" 30° below Zero. In the morn – Mrs Wilbur said –

Anniversary of Beloved's funeral; in 1900.

Three years today since Beloved who laid to rest in God's acre" - that is, the mortal casket of his soul. Longing for rest today I went to see Madge Baldwin Reeve, Beloved of us both who told of Genevieve's talk with her of his desire & efforts to establish Rancho Chico Indians on homes of their own. Then to Dr Morse's - saw him & Mrs Morse, dear friends of us both. Home by 12.30

At 3.30 Arthur D Hersch Felder arrived (to see us) from Baltimore and remained until 9.15 P.M. So that he who calls me his "Chico father & mother" came to bless my sad heart on this anniversary day. Yet I have so much to thank God for. Oh so much, that it seems sinful to be sad with my God ever comforting my soul and leading me be "very courageous", and with the example left me by my Beloved of faith, courage, love, work - all by the grace of God: "For me to live is Christ!" Does that mean that while I live Christ lives within me? God grant that it does. Then life will be glorious.

Weather: Overcast in A.M. - with sprinkling rain time to time all day.

Places. With sister to Cemetery, taking flowers for loved one's graves. Drove, then stopped at The Church of The Covenant. — for Bible-Class - in time to hear interesting address of Missionary therefrom.

We all attended Church - and partook of The Lord's Supper together, Sister, Mr. Wellie and self. For which praise the Lord, my soul.

In evening Sister & Mr A. read aloud from Geike's Life of Christ.

Many Easter lilies from Arthur Herschfelder reached us this Morning, exquisite.
